Grassington Festival
14th - 29th June 2013

15 Days of Music and Arts in the Yorkshire Dales
Welcome!

From the opening night with The Beat, right through to the Last Night Party with Levellers, this year’s Festival is going to be fabulous – come rain or shine.

In amongst the kind of stellar programme you’ve come to expect, we’re celebrating Yorkshire’s food, crafts and heroes. We’re embracing the elements with our visual arts theme, and we’re making sure rain won’t stop play this June as we turn the Square into an all-weather haven!

We’re thrilled to bring back the brilliant Hope & Social from Leeds whose life affirming, joyous music will lift your soul… and there’s even a chance to join in.

There are lots of events for classical tastes too – a young wind quartet, beautiful early music, a Concert of Coronation music, and a very special Gala Concert to celebrate the 60th birthday of Raphael Wallfisch and Peter Donohoe. We hope you will join us to wish them a very Happy Birthday!

As usual, there are lots of great events for all the family. Those who enjoyed last year’s Swamp Juice will be enthralled by Slapdash Galaxy – a brilliant shadow puppet menagerie all the way from Canada. And our friends from Illyria will return to Bolton Abbey with a new adaptation, Babe The Sheep-Pig.

Guardian columnist Steve Hewlett will discuss his take on the state of The BBC, Leveson, and Rupert Murdoch while our very own Yorkshire Olympian, Andrew Triggs Hodge will give us an insight into his success. You asked for a Brass Band so we’ve brought one of Yorkshire’s finest: Black Dyke Band. We’re delighted to welcome Jack Dee, back to the Festival this year with his solo show.

We’re reaching out into every corner of the village with performances in care homes and with local schools. And we’ve joined forces with local brewers and hostelries to launch our new FestivAle - a specialist ale brewed with festival revellers in mind!

Thanks to all of our friends and supporters, sponsors and patrons - we really couldn’t do it without you. And thanks to all of you who helped us plan the 2013 festival by letting us know your views on events last year. Delve inside this 2013 event guide and we hope you’ll find that we’ve listened and brought you an array of events you’ll love.

We look forward to seeing you in June!

Kate Beard, Festival Director and all the Festival Team

Visual Arts

It’s official. Grassington looks brilliant in all kinds of weather - wind, sun, rain, snow! And this year’s visual arts programme is full to the brim with events, installations, competitions and workshops responding to our British fascination with the weather! With many events running right through the Festival and lots of free fun, you can discover something new every day.

Why not take part in family friendly workshops, express yourself in a creative drawing class or parade in our community carnival? Develop a skill in weather vane making and enjoy inspirational art on the street or inside the Town Hall – we’ve got it covered! There really is something for everybody.

The visual arts events at Grassington Festival are created in collaboration with local communities, including local school children, artists and various other talented and enthusiastic creative folk. They all have a crucial hand in making Grassington Festival the amazing, vibrant, diverse event that it is. So we hope you enjoy your festival. It’s here for you to explore and to help you unleash your own creativity!

We look forward to seeing you here, rain or shine!

Opening Night Party with The Beat

With support

One of the biggest bands of the 2-Tone movement, The Beat will be kicking off our 2013 festival with a high energy wall of ska fusion rhythms, igniting the Town Hall crowd with an opening bang of familiar hits.

Known the world over for songs like ‘Mirror in the Bathroom’, ‘Too Nice To Talk To’, ‘Can't Get Used To Losing You’, ‘Hands off She’s Mine’ and ‘All Out To Get You’, The Beat will entertain and uplift us with their relentless energy and world class musicianship.

Their songs of peace, love and unity fuse ska, pop, reggae and punk rock into a dynamic live show guaranteed to make you want to move! There’s also lively support from local 7-piece jazz/neo-soul outfit, Dragonfly Tattoo for an opening night not to be missed!

Venue: Town Hall
Time: 8.00pm
Tickets: £15

Saturday 15th June

Saturday 15th - Saturday 29th June

Festival in the Square with Carnival Parade with Hope & Social

Join us in the Square as we bring it to life with a full day of entertainment. The fun starts with a spectacular parade created by local people with help from a fantastic bunch of artists and musicians. The parade, based on our visual arts weather theme, represents weeks of work making costumes and props. The morning will be led by the brilliant Hope & Social, as they warm up for their big Saturday night show in the Town Hall.

Come and enjoy Bradford Grammar School Concert Band and New York Brass Band. Victorian Music Hall superstar rapper Ida Barr will be inviting you to join her ‘Mash Up’ – a participatory live art project, which combines song, dance, writing, performance and cabaret.

Venue: The Square
Time: 10.00am - 4.00pm (participants gather for parade in YDNPA at 10.30am)
Tickets: Free

Saturday 15th June

Time: 10.30am – 3.30pm
Tickets: £18

Saturday 15th - Saturday 29th June

Blame it on The Weather Man

Weather conditions have changed dramatically inside the Town Hall. An accumulation of gigantic drippy raindrops have swept in, a cold spell of crunchy clouds hang heavy and a squirting rainbow bursts from under your feet - and it’s here to stay for two whole weeks. Take time to fully immerse yourself amongst this wild and wonderful weather, brought to you by the creative forecaster and Theatre Designer Emma Bayliss. You have the chance to create your own weather report from our Festival Weather Booth, which will be broadcasting a local weather report every day! The best thing is, you can decide what the weather will bring.

Venue: Town Hall
Time: 11.00am - 4.00pm (every day except Wed 19th)
Tickets: Free

Hope & Social

A Band Anyone Can Join

Not simply one of the UK's top five live bands (according to The Independent), Hope & Social are an event. The band likes involving people in their music. By harnessing the creative energy generated by their passionate audience - who care about the shared experience - Hope & Social have also grown a faithful following.

They've delighted festival revellers from Glastonbury to Edinburgh with their own inimitable brand of inclusive fun. And now they’ve been working with Grassington groups ranging from the Devonshire Divas to Dales Pilots and more, to make tonight's unique performance the lively culmination of an exciting community project.

Don't miss your chance to come and see Hope & Social's life-affirming, uplifting music rock the Town Hall.

Sunday 16th June
Growing Old Disgracefully
Presented by Scamp Theatre
Written and performed by Virginia Ironside
Directed by Nigel Planer

When an agony aunt reaches sixty, she can lie like a trooper, jump off a bridge or take to the stage. Virginia Ironside explains that unlimited free drugs, fun funerals, grand children and sex or, even better, no sex – make your sixties the best and funniest time of your life…

“Virginia’s become, effectively, a stand-up comedian. Her show is really funny…. I urge you to see it.” Arthur Smith ‘Loose Ends’

BBC Radio 4

“This doyenne of Fleet Street delivers her observations with precision, style and wit. Her writing is beautiful, funny, sensible and smart – and her show, directed by The Young Ones’ Nigel Planer, is an absolute delight.”

Gala Concert:
Raphael Wallfisch & Peter Donohoe

A 60th Birthday Celebration

This coming June, two of Britain’s most celebrated classical artists - Raphael Wallfisch and Peter Donohoe - celebrate turning 60. To mark this special occasion, Wallfisch (cello) and Donohoe (piano) will join forces to present a spectacular gala programme of classical works for Cello and Piano.

With a discography of over 60 CDs and hundreds of concerts with many of the world’s greatest orchestras, cellist Raphael Wallfisch is at the height of his powers as a performer. Since his success as joint winner of the 1982 International Tchaikovsky Competition in Moscow, Peter Donohoe has developed a distinguished career. He’s acclaimed as one of the foremost pianists of our time.

Come and help them celebrate with a glass of festival fizz and a pre-concert talk with the artists before you enjoy an exquisite gala programme of:

- Stravinsky Suite Italienne
- Beethoven Sonata No.3 in A, Op.69
- Schubert Arpeggione Sonata
- Rachmaninov Sonata op19

Creative Schools Workshops

As part of our community outreach work we’ll be encouraging local primary school children to enjoy the Festival experience. There will be a puppetry performance for KS1 and we’ll work with KS2 children to create the sounds of Yorkshire in workshops exploring weather myths and music.
Wed 19th June

Pat Kirkwood is Angry

Jessica Walker and pianist Joseph Atkins

Jessica Walker's new show, Pat Kirkwood is Angry, is a co-production with Opera North and the Royal Exchange Theatre.

Written and performed by Jessica Walker, it re-imagines the life and songs of the legend who was born in Salford in 1921 and was named Britain's first wartime star at the age of only eighteen.

With songs written for her by Noël Coward and Cole Porter, Pat Kirkwood was the highest paid entertainer in Britain in the 1940's. Songs such as 'My Heart Belongs to Daddy' and 'Bewitched, Bothered and Bewildered' feature in the performance.

Kirkwood was drawn into a scandal surrounding an alleged affair with HRH the Duke of Edinburgh, rumours of which were to haunt her right up to her death from Alzheimer's in an Ilkley nursing home in 2007. In this witty but poignant look at the ephemeral nature of fame, Jessica Walker's dynamic stage presence and superlative singing brings Pat Kirkwood's story to life again. We're thrilled to welcome this exciting show to Grassington.

Venue: Town Hall
Time: 8.00pm

Masterclass:

Wild Food Foraging with Chris Bax

Join us with celebrity forager Chris Bax from Taste the Wild as seen on BBC Countryfile. Come and explore the ancient woodland of Grassington Woods, learning to find, identify and prepare edible plants, seeds, nuts, flowers and fungi. The itinerary for this fabulous experience includes:

Morning: Arrive at 10.30am and check in with coffee and biscuits in the bar. John Rudden will introduce you to your fellow foragers and outline the adventure to come, before we head off across the Iron Age moorland of Lea Green for a fascinating morning spent foraging with Chris Bax in primitive woodlands.

Lunch: A masterclass demonstration on location in the woods as Chris and John show you how to cook the freshly gathered foods for your picnic lunch along with some home-made treats brought along from the Grassington House kitchen.

Afternoon: More foraging is followed by a scenic walk back to the hotel along the River Wharfe.

After all that fresh air, there'll be time to rest and change for dinner at 7.30pm - a delicious 3 course meal featuring some of the day's foraged produce. Linger in the bar knowing there's a hearty Yorkshire breakfast with John's own hand-reared rare-breed pork sausages and bacon before you depart the next morning with your new foraging skills.

Venue: Grassington House Hotel
Time: 10.30am
Tickets: £130 per person, including evening meal, accommodation and breakfast – tickets via Grassington House Hotel
£80.00 per person for daytime foraging and picnic only – tickets via our box office

The Titian Experience

A National Gallery Festival Tour

Immerse yourself in great art by Renaissance master Titian. This mobile cinema experience from the National Gallery celebrates Diana and Callisto, a painting recently acquired for the nation. Inspired by Ovid’s epic poem Metamorphoses, its rich colouring, compositional complexity, beauty and inventiveness make it one of art history’s most important works.

On the outside of the cinema you'll find full-size framed reproductions of Diana and Callisto and two related works – Diana and Actaeon and The Death of Actaeon. Step inside to watch a short film that approaches Titian's work from a 21st-century perspective, and discover how the painting remains a powerful source of inspiration for a wide range of curators, poets, artists, teachers and young people today.

Speak to a National Gallery expert, who will be on hand to introduce the film and answer questions. Explore the paintings, be inspired and tell us what you think of this ground-breaking project. More details will be on the website during May.

Shooglenifty

With support

Famous the world over for inventing Techno Ceilidh, Acid Croft and Hypnofolkadelia, Shooglenifty's original and exciting sound has launched the band on an international career. A wild up-tempo mix of trad talent and super funky phonics melding heritage and hedonism into one unbreakable whole.

Shooglenifty is one of Scotland's most unique musical exports, their fiery instrumental lyricism, pulsating with infectious rhythm and drive, creates a sound that is at once epic and inclusive, soulful and stirring.

Their musical presence takes the crowd by the hands and dances them on an exhilarating romp through unchartered and fiercely exciting new territory.

With support from the rather excellent 8 piece Yorkshire band String Fellows, and their peculiar mix of full-on blokey harmonies combined with twisted acoustic music on banjo, ukulele, resonator, double bass, guitars, sticks and a suitcase full of percussion! Get down in your dancing shoes for a real festival phenomenon!

“This is tradition standing on its head... doing cart wheels and pole vaulting over every barrier in sight...”

Saturday 22nd June

What's Your Story?

In an exciting and ambitious project, film maker Geoff Kerr and local historian Cynthia Colley are producing a piece of work documenting local life, to be screened at our 2014 Festival. This is your chance to be part of local history and tell your own story!

Geoff and his camera will be looking for people to share their experiences and thoughts about our community of Grassington. In conjunction with The Grassington Hub and BoyPike Video Productions we hope that residents and visitors alike will take the chance to record their stories for this project. These recordings will be used as part of a village archive of the lives of our residents and the impressions of our visitors. Look out for Geoff and his camera in the Square and check our website during May for more information.

Saturday 22nd June

Dales Jam

Dales Jam, the Skipton based community jazz band, is among just forty seven not-for-profit groups nationwide to receive a grant from the BBC Performing Arts Fund Community Music Scheme and one of only three successful groups in Yorkshire. Tonight's performance features an original piece of music, funded through this scheme. They'll be accompanied by the Settle based youth ensemble RAMJam and newly formed Richmond Jam. We're also delighted to welcome guest artist John Helliwell, formerly a member of the British band Supertramp.

They'll be performing an original suite of pieces including music developed from guided improvisations and group composition workshops with local schools. This project is also supported by North Yorkshire Youth Music Action Zone (NYMAZ).

Jack Dee

After a six year absence from Stand-Up, Jack Dee’s back, agonising over the slightest of annoyances and misdemeanors. Where’s he been? Appearing on shows like QI and Never Mind The Buzzcocks, 8 out of 10 Cats and Have I Got News For You, hosting Radio 4’s legendary I’m Sorry I Haven’t A Clue, co-writing and starring in four series of BBC 2’s hit sitcom Lead Balloon and writing his memoirs, Thanks For Nothing which he modestly dedicated to himself “Without whom none of this would have been possible”.

Venue: Festival in the Field Marquee
Time: 8.00pm (bar open from 6.30pm)
Tickets: £18 - £23.50
Age guidance 16+

Wednesday 26th June

Jools Holland & His Rhythm & Blues Orchestra

featuring GILSON LAVIS
with special guest ROLAND GIFT
The voice of The Fine Young Cannibals
and guest vocalists
RUBY TURNER & LOUISE MARSHALL

National icon Jools Holland needs little introduction as a composer, pianist, bandleader and broadcaster. He’s earned his place in our hearts as much for his acclaimed TV shows across four decades as he has for his outstanding big band rhythm and blues collaborations with award winning artists spanning many generations of music history.

We’re thrilled to welcome Jools and his Rhythm & Blues Orchestra to Grassington as a huge highlight of our Festival in the Field diary. But we’re sorry to announce that this show sold out during the pre-Christmas booking window. Those who did get tickets are promised an unforgettable night in the company of a true music legend. We just wish we had a bigger marquee!

Venue: Festival in the Field Marquee
Time: 8.00pm (bar open from 6.30pm)
Tickets: £30 - £38

Thursday 27th June

A Mozart Opera Dinner

With Victoria Sharp (Soprano)
And Graham Campbell Russell (Tenor)

Sit back and enjoy a Mozart Opera Dinner in the company of two of Opera North’s finest performers. Expert chefs from the award winning Angel Inn will be serving up an authentic three course Austrian dinner, set to the stirring tones of Victoria Sharp and Graham Campbell Russell performing some of Mozart’s operatic masterpieces.

Venue: Cracoe Village Hall, Cracoe
Time: 6.30pm
Tickets: £33

Thursday 27th June

Workshop: Create Your Own Weather Vane

Join Sheffield based sculptor and artist Gillian Brent, who’ll be hosting a hands-on workshop to design and create a contemporary weather vane from metal and plastic. Gillian will guide you through a step-by-step process, helping you design and learn basic metal techniques to construct your own individual piece. By the end of the day you will have your own piece to take home and watch the weather! (Working inside a barn so bring warm layers!)

Venue: Fell Grange Farm, Burnsall
Time: 10.00am-4.00pm
Tickets: £35
Thursday 27th June

Black Dyke Band

With a brass band heritage stretching back over 150 years, Black Dyke Band is the most recorded band in the world, setting the bar at over 350 recordings! It’s also the most successful contesting band in the world, notching up 12 European Championships, 29 British Open titles and 22 victories at the National Championships of Great Britain.

What more can we say? It’s only the best brass band in the world right here in Grassington! Black Dyke’s heart-warmingly familiar velvet tones make the band’s music loved and lauded the world over - and nowhere more so than at home here in Yorkshire. Join us for an evening of world class musicianship, as Black Dyke Band bring us a rich and masterfully delivered programme of brass favourites.

Venue: Festival in the Field Marquee
Time: 8.00pm (bar open from 6.30pm)
Tickets: £12-18

Friday 28th June

Guided Walk:
Woodland Walk with YDMT

Join local charity Yorkshire Dales Millennium Trust (YDMT) for a scenic, moderate 5 mile walk around Grassington, taking in both young and ancient woodland, rare plants and birds, and stunning local views. Led by YDMT staff who’ll provide information about the Trust’s local work. Chat over an optional lunch in the pub afterwards! Dress for Dales weather: bring waterproofs, sun protection and a drink. Well behaved dogs are welcome on a lead. Advance booking essential.

Meet: The Forester’s Arms
Time: 9.45am to order lunch (optional)
10.00am start
Tickets: £3 per person with donations welcome to YDMT

Babe the Sheep–Pig
by Dick King Smith
(adapted by David Wood)
Performed by Illyria

Farmer Hoggett wins a piglet at the fair - and everyone knows what fate awaits piglets raised on a farm. Adopted by Fly the sheepdog, Babe develops his own methods of herding sheep using politeness instead of barking orders, and even saves the flock from being stolen by sheep rustlers. But can he win the county sheep dog trials with Fly’s help?

Another enchanting treat for all the family from the outstanding outdoor theatre specialist Illyria, set against the beautiful backdrop of Bolton Abbey Priory Grounds.

Bring seating, a picnic and insect repellent to make your show extra comfortable, and be sure to dress for Dales weather. Cancellation only in the event of a hurricane!

Venue: Bolton Abbey Priory Grounds,
Time: 6.00pm
Tickets: £14 / U16s £7

THE ORCHESTRA
Starring ELO former members
With support

THE ORCHESTRA is back by popular demand after wowing the Grassington crowd back in 2009. We’re thrilled to welcome these pioneers of experimental ‘orchestral rock’ back to fill our Festival Marquee with the much loved sounds of ELO hits like ‘Mr Blue Sky’ and ‘Roll Over Beethoven’.

While the line-up of musicians has changed over the years along with the name, the definitive sound still features Mik Kaminski the famous “Blue violin” and Louis Clarke who invented “Hooked on Classics”. Let them take you on a journey back through their hit sounds of the 70s and 80s. With support from the Anglo/Irish contemporary duo Fay & Latta.

Venue: Festival in the Field Marquee
Time: 8.00pm (bar open from 6.30pm)
Tickets: £25

Saturday 29th June
Last Night Party with Levellers
With support & DJ

What better way to end this year’s fun than a high energy last night party with the legendary Levellers - undisputed luminaries of folk-rock. Expect the kind of electrifying performance that’s earned them a fanatical festival following alongside a 25-year place at the heart of the UK folk-roots scene.

Honed by decades of outstanding live performances, their shows bring continually fresh energy and material, and an ever relevant edge of subtle social commentary. Their dedication to their music has won them many accolades, including the recent “Roots Award” at the 2011 BBC Radio 2 Folk Awards.

We can’t wait to welcome these heroes of foot-stomping funky folk to the Festival Marquee. Plus they’re bringing a hand-picked support line up of Gaz Brookfield and 3 Daft Monkeys.

Come and join us to celebrate, dance until your feet say ‘no more’ and bid a fond farewell to another year’s festival fortnight with one very big finale.

Venue: Festival in the Field Marquee

Patrons play an absolutely vital role in the continuation of the Festival. If you’re interested in becoming a Patron, please go to the Patrons page at: www.grassington-festival.org.uk and complete our online form. Or email patrons@grassington-festival.org.uk for more information

Volunteers
We rely on volunteers to help with all aspects of the Festival. New volunteers are always welcome, so if you are friendly, reliable, enjoy working as part of a team and would like to get involved, we would really like to hear from you. Please contact: admin@grassington-festival.org.uk

The bar at the Town Hall and the Festival in the Field Marquee will open for pre-performance drinks from 6.30pm. Interval drinks can also be ordered in advance.

Environment
Grassington is a beautiful small village justly proud of its setting and tranquillity. Please be sensitive to local residents in trying to keep noise down when leaving venues late at night. Please take rubbish home with you and help us keep the village clean and tidy. Please also recycle this event guide, or pass it on to a friend!

Accessibility
There is an induction loop for those with hearing difficulties. In the Town Hall simply switch your hearing aid to the “T” position. Please call the Box Office on 01756 752691 to ensure we help you with access arrangements.

Children
We aim to be a child friendly festival and welcome children to events. If you are unsure please contact us and we will talk you through a show so that you can make a decision about taking young children. We have special events for children during the festival which are highlighted in the children and families section of our programme pages on the website.

Vouchers
Vouchers can be issued for any amount (minimum £5) and purchased online, by telephone and in person at the Box Office. They can only be redeemed in person at, or submitted by post to, the Box Office. Tickets are subject to availability. A voucher is not a guarantee of acquiring a ticket for any particular event. Vouchers redeemed by post must be in the hands of the Box Office within two full days of ordering tickets. The usual £2.00 transaction charge applies. Vouchers are valid for all events up to and including the 29th June. They must be redeemed two days in advance of the event.

Set in the most beautiful unspoilt location in the Dales, The Fountaine Inn faces a pretty village green, a babbling brook and an ancient ford. This cosy inn has served many a Yorkshire man and woman and countless visitors from across the UK all under the watchful eye of an early 18th Century Alms House and small chapel.

A full menu is served every day throughout the year so timing a visit is not a problem - Lunch, High Tea, or a full blown Supper - our menu has something for all appetites. The Fountaine Inn also boasts super luxury barn bedrooms, newly opened in May 2012.

For a chance to win, just answer this question:

How many bedrooms does the Fountaine Inn have?

(Hint: Look at the Fountaine Inn website photos) Please send your answer and contact details to: info@individualinns.co.uk with 'Grassington Festival Fountaine Inn Competition' in the subject line.
